

POLICY NUMBER: MAT004

NAME: Complaints and Appeals Policy and Procedure

APPROVED BY: RTO Director

Date of Next Review: 28 Feb 2019

SECTION 1 – INTRODUCTION

PURPOSE

Medical Administration Training Pty Ltd (MAT) through the application of its Complaints and Appeals policy will develop and maintain an effective, timely, fair and equitable complaint / appeal handling system guidelines to ensure that complaints and appeals of students can be resolved in accordance with the principles of natural justice, which is easily accessible to students and offered at no charge.

SCOPE

The complaints/appeal handling system will address any expression of dissatisfaction with any aspect of the RTO's services and activities, including both academic and non-academic matters, including but not restricted to:

- The quality of training delivery and assessment
- Student support and materials
- Fees and payment instalments;
- Enrolment and eligibility to enrol;
- Academic issues, including course content, student progress and assessment results and the non-award of a qualification;
- Privacy issues, the handling of personal information and access to personal records;
- Concerns about bullying, harassment, intimidation or discrimination;
- Student disciplinary actions taken; and
- Administrative or customer service issues.

All stakeholders including potential and past students and clients may use the RTO's Complaints and Appeals Policy if they are dissatisfied with any aspect at the RTO. Use of the RTO's Complaints and appeals Policy does not limit a complainant's other legal avenues or rights.

DEFINITIONS

Natural Justice is concerned with ensuring procedural fairness:

- Decisions and processes should be free from bias.
- All parties have the right to be heard.
- The respondent has a right to know of what s/he is accused.
- All parties are told the decision and the reasons for the decision.

SECTION 2 POLICY

1. An informal process to resolve concerns is to be offered in the first instance to encourage staff and students to report any concerns immediately. However a formal system is to be in place for those that do not wish to follow the informal process.
2. All formal complaints must be in writing via use of the MAT Complaints and Appeals form, addressed to MAT management and submitted either via post or email.
3. All Complaints will be acknowledged in writing within 3 business days of receipt and should be actioned and resolved promptly, objectively and with sensitivity and in complete confidentiality.
4. Regardless of whether a complaint is informally or formally raised it will be appropriately actioned in accordance with this policy.
5. The views of each complainant and respondent are to be respected and no party to a grievance is to be discriminated against or victimised.
6. The complaints/appeals handling system should include a systematic follow up process to implement positive steps to prevent valid grievances from recurring; and promote opportunities for improvement.
7. The principles of natural justice should be applied to ensure fairness and justice for all parties; and a solid basis for arriving at fair, impartial and independent decisions. This will include the complainant and respondent having an opportunity to fully present their case and having the opportunity to be accompanied and assisted by a support person at any meetings.
8. Written records of each complaint, investigation and its outcome will be retained. A full explanation for decisions and actions taken as part of the process will be provided to the complainant; and corrective actions agreed to are to be implemented as soon as practical. As provided for under the RTO Privacy & Personal Information Policy, the complainant will be given access to any requested documents.
9. All complaints/appeals will be processed and finalised by Medical Administration Training Pty Ltd within no more than 60 calendar days.
10. All complaints substantiated by the complaints/appeals procedure will be reviewed as part of the MAT continuous improvement procedure
11. Medical Administration Training Pty Ltd will maintain a complaints register to document the course of action and resolution of all formal complaints
12. An external review option will be offered to students; with each party bearing the costs of using this system. Use of the external review process does not limit a complainant's other legal avenues or rights
13. A copy of this Policy is available to all students and staff via the Medical Administration Training Pty Ltd website. The information will also contain details of external authorities that they may approach.
